CHICAGO OPHTHALMOLOGICAL SOCIETY

October 12, 1944.

The Opening Meeting of the Season was held at the Medinah Club on October 12, 1944, and was called to order at 8:15 P.M. by the President, Dr. Samuel J. Meyer

No clinical meeting was held.

The reading of the minutes of the Annual Meeting was dispensed with, on motion duly carried.

68 members and guests attended the dinner preceding the scientific meeting. The President introduced several guests from out of town.

The Secretary announced with regret the death of two of the elder members of the Society, Dr. J. F. Burkholder and Dr. William A. Fisher, the latter one of the charter members and a former President. The membership stood a moment in silence in respect to the memory of these gentlemen.

Dr. Meyer announced the course to be given at Northwestern University Medical School in December by Dr. James W. White.

The Secretary reported on the progress of the Gifford Memorial Fund.

The applications of Drs. Max Hirschfelder and William Rosenberg were read, to be voted on at the November meeting.

Scientific Program
